About the Walker Family

Tim, Maz & Arron Walker gave up their comfortable life in the UK and moved out to South Africa at the end of 2008. They are working hard on various tasks around the 'village', ensuring that the donations received are put to good use. This could include repairs to the buildings, antiretroviral drugs and even nappies! Thembalitsha UK is a small charity with little 'red tape', this means that your money goes a long way, directly impacting the lives of the children and the surrounding community.
